• Letters of Recommendation Three letters of recommendation addressing the applicant’s academic accomplishments and potential.

• Personal Statement Required; a statement of academic and professional goals, and research plans or interests.

• Other Requirements A writing sample (an MA thesis or other major research paper). Applicants should submit a resume or curriculum vitae (CV).

Degree Requirements

Students who have received a master’s degree or its equivalent prior to being admitted to the doctoral program may receive up to 32 semester hours of credit toward the 96-hour requirement. Credit for other graduate work in a related field, whether taken at UIC or another institution, may be given on an individual basis. Students may earn up to 20 hours of credit for dissertation research in CLJ 599. Students admitted with a BA degree must complete both the MA and PhD requirements which include the MA comprehensive examination. Students with an MA from another institution must satisfy UIC Criminology, Law, and Justice MA requirements. The graduate director will evaluate students’ prior preparation and determine remedial work if necessary.

In addition to the minimum requirements of the Graduate College, students must meet the following program requirements:

• Minimum Semester Hours Required 96 beyond the baccalaureate.

• Course Work

Note: For CLJ 570, upon departmental approval, an equivalent methods course may be taken either outside the department or as an independent study course in the department, dependent on the student’s dissertation research.

• Electives, Areas of Concentration: Upon successful completion of the core curriculum, students are required to complete 40 additional hours, no more than 12 of which may be taken outside the department. This includes two CLJ Signature Seminars (selected from CLJ 541, CLJ 546, and CLJ 548), one of which coincides with the student’s area of concentration. Signature Seminars are courses within the areas of concentration that offer further inquiry into central questions in the discipline. Three areas of concentration are offered, each of which typically requires students to complete five additional courses in an area:

1. Law and Society, which examines the nature of formal and informal social norms, their development, use and variation across cultures, societies, and over time.
2. Criminology, which examines the theories of deviance, crime causation, criminal behavior, and explanations of rule breaking from psychological, sociological, economic, and political perspectives.
3. Organizations and Administration, which explores organizations and agencies whose principal function is the application of law, and theories explaining practices of decision making and how organizations are created, maintain and develop resources, and relate to internal and external environments.

• Examinations
  - Departmental Qualifying Examination: None.
  - Preliminary Examination: Required; written and oral.

• Dissertation Required.
