- Personal Statement Required, 600 words. The statement should address how graduate study in the department relates to the applicant’s career or other aims.
- Writing Sample Recommended.
- Other Requirements Students are only admitted for the fall semester.
- Nondegree Applicants Rarely accepted. Nondegree applicants must submit all credentials and meet the same admission requirements as degree applicants. Nondegree students may not take individual study courses.

Degree Requirements
Besides the Graduate College minimum requirements, students must meet the following program requirements:

- Minimum Semester Hours Required 32. Students may elect one of two options: examination or thesis. Students declare their intention for either the thesis or nonthesis option at the beginning of their second year of full-time studies, after completing 24 hours of course work.
- Course Work At least 20 hours (excluding thesis hours) must be at the 500-level. Credit in COMM 474 and COMM 498 cannot be applied to the degree. Students who receive more than one grade below B in their graduate course work, or four incompletes that have not been made up within the regulatory one term, will be dropped from the program.

Electives

No more than 8 hours may be taken in courses outside the department, except for students in the concentration in Gender and Women’s Studies. No more than 4 hours may be in COMM 596. Students taking a 400-level course as an elective should note that additional work may be required by the instructor and higher standards will be applied than for undergraduate students.

- Comprehensive Examination Required only for students who elect to pursue the nonthesis option. The students must also complete 8 additional credit hours of course work.
- Thesis, Project, or Course-Work-Only Options Thesis or course work only.
  - Thesis Required only for students who elect the thesis. These students must earn at least 8 hours in COMM 598.
  - Course Work Only Students who elect this option must pass a comprehensive examination.

Interdepartmental Concentrations

Students earning a graduate degree in this department may complement their courses by enrolling in select concentrations after consulting with their graduate advisor. Interdepartmental concentrations available for this degree include:
