

Library and Information Science (LIB)

Courses

LIB 573. Introduction to Managing Research Data. 1 hour.

Students will explore best practices, obligations, challenges and opportunities surrounding research data management and identify potential interdisciplinary collaborations and communication. Course Information: Satisfactory/Unsatisfactory grading only. Extensive computer use required. Meets eight weeks of the semester. Class Schedule Information: To be properly registered, students must enroll in one Lecture and one Discussion.