a. Students may not take a 300-level FR class unless they EITHER have completed two 200-level courses OR have completed one 200-level course and register concurrently in a 200-level course taught in French.

b. FR 303 fulfills the Writing-in-the-Discipline requirement. FR 303 must be taken in conjunction with FR 300, FR 301, or FR 302.

c. Students may take only ONE French class taught in English at the 200 level toward their major or minor.

d. Students may not take a 400-level French class (even if it is taught in English, since all writing and supplemental reading will need to be in French) unless they EITHER have taken a 300-level class OR register concurrently in a 300-level class.

Note: Study abroad options are available that can significantly advance the time required to satisfy the French major; this can help students who begin French in the 100-level program at UIC complete the major in a timely manner.
