The formal study of Spanish and Italian consists of courses in language at the basic, intermediate, and advanced levels, as well as courses in linguistics and the literature and culture of the countries where these languages are spoken.

The Department of Hispanic and Italian Studies offers programs leading to the Bachelor of Arts with majors in Spanish and in the Teaching of Spanish. Minors are also offered in Spanish, Spanish for Professions, and Italian and Italian American Studies.

The Spanish and Italian major and minor programs expose students to innovative critical and theoretical approaches to literary, cultural, and linguistic studies. Thus, a student majoring or minoring in Spanish or Italian acquires skills in critical thinking, analytical ability, and language proficiency that provide a solid foundation for graduate and professional studies, as well as a variety of careers. Teacher education forms an integral part of the department's offerings in Spanish.

BA with a Major in Spanish

The BA with a Major in Spanish allows students to pursue the study of the Spanish language through a diverse set of subjects that include literature, cultural studies, and linguistics. Students can focus on one or more of these subjects, depending on their academic and future professional goals. While many students complete the major as their singular field of interest, many others complete the degree as a double-major together with one of the many other offerings present in LAS and UIC. Students in this major will be able to:

- Develop advanced oral and written proficiencies in the Spanish language.
- Bolster their overall critical thinking, analytical, oral communication, and writing skills.
- Acquire an advanced level of cultural competency as it pertains to the Hispanic world (Spain and Latin America).
- Acquire an advanced level of knowledge in the field of Hispanic Linguistics.
