

Minor in Psychology

Students may also minor in Psychology. A minor is structured very much like the General Psychology major, except that fewer courses are required. A Psychology minor can be beneficial to anyone who values a basic understanding of behavior. Students from other disciplines who want to minor in Psychology must take a total of 18 hours distributed as follows.

Code	Title	Hours
Required Courses
PSCH 100	Introduction to Psychology	4
PSCH 242	Introduction to Research in Psychology	3
Additional psychology courses at the 200-level or above for a minimum of 18 semester hours		11
Total Hours		18