

Religious Studies

Contact Information:

Campus Location: 1722 University Hall (UH)

(312) 996-5218

rels.uic.edu

Administration:

Director, Junaid Quadri

Minor in Religious Studies

The Minor in Religious Studies introduces students to the academic study of religion. Through broad and diverse offerings, the program invites students to explore many of the world's major religious traditions, the texts that inform them, the communities that inhabit them, as well as the philosophical and theological questions that ground the origins of faith in general. With faculty drawn from departments across campus, the minor encourages students to examine religion and religious phenomena from a variety of disciplinary perspectives.

Minor

- Minor in Religious Studies